Sahil @ Papli
.....Petitioner
Versus
State of Haryana
.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

Present: Mr. Mandeep Singla, Advocate for the petitioner
Mr. Amish Sharma, Asst. A.G., Haryana.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J.

1. Instant petition has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 (earlier Section 439 Cr.P.C.), for grant of regular bail to the petitioner, during the pendency of trial, who has been booked in a criminal case arising out of First Information Report, as detailed hereunder:-

Name of Petitioner(s)	FIR No.	Date	Section(s)	Police Station	District
Sahil @ Papli	01	02.01.2021	302, 323, 34, 216 (Sections 148 and 149 IPC were deleted and Sections 216, 34 IPC were added later on)	Sadar Rewari	Rewari

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner is in custody since 04.01.2021, amounting to a period of approximately 4 years and 10 months.

3. While addressing the arguments on facts, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that FIR was lodged at the instance of Jaswant

Singh (father of the deceased), who received information about the incident from the eye-witnesses, namely Suman Devi (mother of the deceased) and Mamta (wife of the deceased). As per the allegations contained in the FIR, accused persons—(1) Pawan, (2) Rohit, (3) Rahul, (4) Nikhil, (5) Sahil (petitioner herein), and (6) Ashish, allegedly assaulted the deceased, Amit, using bricks, lathis, and dandas.

4. It is further submitted that after completion of the investigation, accused Pawan and Nikhil were found to be innocent and were accordingly placed in Column No.2 of the final report. Counsel contends that case of the petitioner, as well as that of the remaining accused, cannot be distinguished from that of Pawan and Nikhil, as all were assigned a similar role in the commission of the alleged offence.

Even the application filed under Section 319 of Cr.P.C. has been dismissed by learned trial Court.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the material witnesses, namely Suman Devi and Mamta, have already been examined as PW-9 and PW-8, respectively, on 14.05.2025. Although both witnesses have supported the prosecution's case, counsel contends that role attributed to the petitioner in the FIR cannot be subsequently improved upon. However, the final determination of the petitioner's role remains within the domain of the trial Court and is yet to be adjudicated at the final stage of the proceedings.

6. Primarily, counsel for the petitioner emphasizes that petitioner has been in custody for the period approximately 4 years and 10 months. Out of a total of 22 prosecution witnesses, only 10 have been examined so far, and conclusion of the trial is likely to take considerable time.

7. It is further submitted that the petitioner is neither an habitual offender nor a criminal, as no criminal case has ever been registered against him in the past.

8. For the purpose of claiming parity, learned counsel for the petitioner contends that another similarly situated accused, namely Ashish alias Ashu, has already been granted the concession of regular bail by this Court, vide order dated 22.05.2025, passed in CRM-M-10893-2025 (Annexure P-10). Additionally, another co-accused, namely Rahul @ Mamu, who is also named in the FIR, has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 19.11.2025, passed in CRM-M-62831-2025

9. In the light of overall submissions, including the prolonged incarceration of the petitioner, stage of trial, nature of allegations, absence of any recovery from the petitioner and the fact that co-accused has already been granted the concession of regular bail, counsel prays for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in the present case.

10. Learned State counsel has filed status report by way of affidavit of Dr. Ravinder HPS, Deputy Superintendent of Police (HQ) Rewari, in Court today. Same is taken on record. Registry is directed to tag the same at appropriate place with the paper-book.

In response to the arguments addressed by learned counsel for the petitioner, learned State counsel, produces the custody certificate dated 02.12.2025 in Court today, which is taken on record. Office to tag the same at appropriate place. A copy thereof has been handed over to the counsel for the petitioner.

As per the custody certificate, in the present case, petitioner has already undergone 04 years 10 months and 29 days period inside jail.

11. Learned State counsel, while opposing the prayer for bail and submissions advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that petitioner is involved in a serious offence of murder, and his case cannot be treated differently from that of the other co-accused for the purpose of considering the present bail plea. However, State counsel is unable to controvert the other factual aspects as submitted by the petitioner's counsel.

12. This Court has considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and has examined the record available on file.

13. It is evident that the trial is proceeding at a very slow pace, and for such delay, particularly when the role of the accused is yet to be finally ascertained, liberty of an individual cannot be curtailed indefinitely.

Petitioner is in custody since 04.01.2021, and delay in conclusion of the trial cannot be attributed to him. Furthermore, material witnesses have already been examined, and appreciation of their testimony is a matter to be determined by the trial Court at the appropriate stage.

14. In view of the above and considering the petitioner's plea to be genuine at this stage, this Court deems it just and appropriate to grant concession of regular bail to the petitioner.

15. Consequently, prayer made in the present petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, subject to his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/ Chief Judicial Magistrate/ Illaqa Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case.

16. Needless to observe that the petitioner shall not extend any threat and shall not influence any prosecution witness in any manner directly or indirectly.

17. Any of the discussion done and recorded here above, shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the facts of the case. Therefore, trial Court is expected to decide the case by taking an independent view, on the basis of evidence available on record, as expeditiously as possible, in accordance with law.

18. Petition stands disposed of.
