Complainant Kashmir Singh have appeared and suffered separate statement that compromise has been effected with accused Kulwinder Singh, Hardev Singh, Dilbag Singh and Bhupinder Singh is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence in FIR No. 49 dated 07.05.2017 U/s 326, 341, 323, 324, 506, 201, 34 IPC, PS Kathunangal, Amritsar.

Accused Kulwinder Singh, Hardev Singh and Dilbag Singh has appeared and suffered a statement that compromise has been effected by them with complainant is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence in FIR No. 49 dated 07.05.2017 U/s 326, 341, 323, 324, 506, 201, 34 IPC, PS Kathunangal, Amritsar. Statement of accused Bhupinder Singh recorded through V.C. and identified by his counsel and complainant Kashmir Singh through V.C. in the court.

ASI Avtar Singh no. 812, PS Kathunangal, Amritsar appeared and suffered the statement that FIR No. 49 dated 07.05.2017 U/s 326, 341, 323, 324, 506, 201, 34 IPC, PS Kathunangal, Amritsar, has got registered by Kashmir Singh against Kulwinder Singh, Hardev Singh, Dilbag Singh and Bhupinder Singh. It is further submitted that there is no other accused other than petitioners/accused namely Kulwinder Singh, Hardev Singh, Dilbag Singh and Bhupinder Singh. It is stated that no other accused except accused Bhupinder Singh is declared as proclaimed offender/person in the present case. It is stated that there is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than complainant Kashmir Singh himself.

So, after going through the above statements of complainant accused and ASI Avtar Singh, this Court is satisfied that a compromise have been effected between the complainant Kashmir Singh and accused namely Kulwinder Singh, Hardev Singh, Dilbag Singh and Bhupinder Singh is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. Earlier accused Bhupinder Singh is declared as proclaimed offender/person in the present case but that order set aside by the Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 12.09.2025. Accused is not involved in other FIR and complaint. There is only one complainant namely in the FIR and complainant as well as all the accused person are party to the compromise in question. Hence, this report is hereby submitted to your honour, accordingly.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that she has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS,2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.

- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0049 dated 07.05.2017 under Sections 341, 324, 323, 506, 34 of IPC 1860 (offences under Sections 326 and 201 of IPC 1860 added later on) registered at Police Station Kathu Nangal, District Amritsar Rural and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 11.09.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
