Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. J.S. Ghuman, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG Punjab

Mr. Saurav Bhatia, Advocate for the complainant

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.50 dated 20.05.2021, registered under Sections 302, 307, 323, 120-B, 506 and 34 IPC at Police Station Sadar Banga, District SBS Nagar.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for 4 years and more than 5 months. There was a delay of 1 day in lodging the FIR, wherein the allegations were that the incident had taken place in front of their house, however, in the supplementary statement given after 4 days, it was stated that not only the incident had taken place few plots away from his house, even his wife was injured. It is also debatable whether the offence false under Section 302 of 304-A of IPC, considering the manner of alleged incident. Thereafter, the petition for transferring of the case has been filed before this Court, which is pending and the trial Court is seeking extension to conclude the trial. All other co-accused have been granted bail. The petitioner is not involved in any other case.

3. The custody certificate dated 18.11.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 4 year, 5 months and 11 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of having committed the offence along with his co-accused. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case and the petitioner being not involved in any other case.

5. Heard.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 4 years, 5 months and 11 days; not involved in any other case; co-accused are on bail, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

7. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
- (ii) The petitioner will not pressurize/ intimidate the prosecution witnesses.
- (iii) The petitioner will appear before the trial Court on each and every date fixed, unless is exempted by a specific order of Court.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which, he is an accused, or for commission of which he is suspected of.
- (v) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly coerce, induce, threaten or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/ her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence in any manner.

- (vi) The petitioner shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.
- (vii) The petitioner shall furnish his address and mobile number by way of an affidavit to the trial Court and not change the same till conclusion of trial and if for any reasons, he seeks to change either of the aforesaid, it shall be done only with prior information to the learned trial Court.
- (viii) The petitioner shall not leave the country without prior permission of the trial Court.
- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

8. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

9. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
