ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (Oral)

Apprehending threat to their lives and liberty at the hands of the private respondents, the petitioners, who claim to have married after attaining the permissible age for marriage, against the wishes of the private respondents, have come up before this Court by invoking their fundamental rights of life guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, seeking direction to the State to protect them from the private respondents.

2. Notices served upon the official respondents through the State's counsel.

3. State's counsel has produced before this Court the statements of the petitioners recorded before the police, stating that there is no threat perception to their lives and liberties at all. The statements are taken on record.

4. Given above, the present petition has been rendered infructuous and same is disposed of, as such. Application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
