SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (Oral)

1. Since the learned Additional Advocate General, Haryana, states at the bar that the impugned order (Annexure P-3) embodying therein the warrants of possession issued in respect of the subject property, thus, have been effectively and satisfactorily executed. Consequently, the challenge to the said issued warrants of possession remains a futile challenge, thereby, rendering the present writ petition to become rendered infructuous. However, the learned Financial Commissioner concerned, seized with the apposite revision petition, is directed to within two weeks, thus decide the same, but after hearing all affected persons concerned. In case, the present petitioners succeed in the availed revisional remedy supra, thereby, it is open to the present petitioners to avail all permissible restitutory remedies in respect of the subject lands.
