.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BHARDWAJ

Present: Mr. Diwan S. Adlakha, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Rajesh Bhardwaj, J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioners have filed the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for issuance of a roving writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus directing the official respondents to get released the detenue, namely, Varsa, daughter of Kumarpal from the wrongful and illegal confinement of respondent No.3.

2. The detenue was ordered to be kept in Anchal Chaya, Delhi Mathura Road, Village Baghola, District Palwal by order of Child Welfare Committee and she was directed to be produced before this Court. The detenue is present in Court alongwith L/HC Sarika. The Court has interacted with the detenue as well as the petitioner, who is also present in Court. Parents of the detenue were also directed to be present before this Court, however, they refused to come before this Court. The detenue has submitted before this Court that the petitioner is her friend and as she is of the age of the majority, she be allowed to go with him.

3. On instructions, learned State counsel has submitted that the petitioner is not only married but is father of a son as well and he has legally not separated from his wife. The Court has further interacted with the detenue, who has submitted before this Court she is aware about all the facts about the petitioner and as she is of the age of the majority, is very much competent to take decision of her life. She repeatedly submitted before this Court that she does not want to remain in Anchal Chaya- respondent No.3 and be set at liberty to go with the petitioner.

4. Birth certificate of the petitioner has been verified by the Investigating Officer and found that she is more than 18 years of age.
5. In view of the same, the present petition is disposed of and the detenue, namely, Varsa is directed to be released from Anchal Chaya, Delhi Mathura Road, Village Baghola, District Palwal- respondent No.3 after completing all the necessary formalities.
6. Copy of this order be given dasti to learned State counsel under the signature of Bench Secretary of this Court.
