...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. Vipin Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG Punjab

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.69 dated 12.07.2024, registered under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B IPC at Police Station Dehlon, Ludhiana, District Ludhiana.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for about a year. She alleges false implication. There is no amount that she has received. Two co-accused have already been granted by this Court vide orders dated 07.11.2024 and 16.12.2024, Annexures P-3 and P-4 respectively. The offences are trial by Magistrate. Challan was presented on 21.01.2025, however, charges have not been framed and in all there are 10 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is involved in 6 more cases, wherein she is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. Status report along with custody certificate dated 06/07.12.2025, filed by the learned State counsel are taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 11 months and 26 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of being part of a gang for duping people for getting married to NRIs. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage, co-accused having been granted bail and the petitioner being on bail in other cases.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc." Reiterating in Prabhakar Tewari vs. State of UP and another, (2020) 11 SCC 648, it was observed that, "The offence alleged no doubt is grave and serious and there are several criminal cases pending against the accused. These factors by themselves cannot be the basis for refusal of prayer for bail."

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 11 months and 26 days; on bail in other cases; co-accused are on bail; challan stands presented on 21.01.2025, however, charges are yet to be framed and there are a total of 10 prosecution witnesses, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.

- (ix) The trial Court/Duty Magistrate may impose any other condition, as deemed appropriate while releasing the petitioner.

9. It is made abundantly clear that in case there is any breach of the aforesaid conditions, the State shall be at liberty to seek cancellation of bail as granted to the petitioner by this order.

10. In view of the above, it is clarified that the observations made herein above are limited for the purpose of present proceedings and would not be construed as any opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the aforesaid observations.
