CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANJARI NEHRU KAUL

Present : Mr. L.M. Gulati, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Amit Rana, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioners are seeking the concession of bail under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 in case FIR No.42 dated 02.05.2023 under Sections 302 of the IPC (Section 34 of the IPC added lateron) registered at Police Station Rajasansi, District Amritsar.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners has argued that no suspicion much less by way of a whisper was raised qua the involvement of the petitioners in the murder of Salomi (sister of the complainant and hereinafter referred to as 'deceased') while lodging the FIR in question. The case of the prosecution rests on circumstantial evidence. It has been further argued that as per the prosecution case, the brother of the petitioners was in a relationship with the deceased and since the complainant party was dissuading the deceased from continuing with her dalliance with co-accused Arshdeep Singh, murder in question was carried out by all the three accused in connivance with each other. It has been further submitted that an extra judicial confession was alleged to have been made by co-accused Arshdeep Singh before a shopkeeper of the village to the effect that he along with the co-accused, including the petitioners, after assaulting the deceased had pushed her to her death in a canal. Learned counsel has argued that no such extra judicial confession was made by the petitioners and even otherwise it cannot be read against the petitioners as it holds very weak evidentiary value. Learned counsel has further submitted that other than the alleged extra judicial confession made by co-accused Arshdeep Singh, no material had been collected by the investigating agency to link the petitioners with the murder in question. Learned counsel has, therefore, prayed that in the aforementioned facts and circumstances, since not only investigation is complete and charges also stand framed, the petitioners be admitted to bail as only 01 prosecution witnesses out of the 26 cited, has been examined till date. It has also been brought to the notice of this Court that identically placed co-accused Dalbir Kaur has already been extended the concession of bail by this Court vide order dated 13.11.2024 (Annexure P-2).

3. Per contra, learned State counsel while opposing the prayer and submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners, has reiterated the allegations levelled in the FIR in question which stands reproduced hereinunder:-

4. It has been submitted by the learned State counsel that although there was no extra judicial confession suffered by the petitioners, however, it has surfaced during investigation that the petitioners were active conspirators to the crime in question and had accompanied prime accused Arshdeep Singh when the deceased was strangled to her death and thereafter pushed into the canal.

5. On a pointed query put to the learned State counsel as to whether there was any other material collected by the investigating agency other than the extra judicial confession made by co-accused to connect the petitioners with the alleged murder, he, on instructions has candidly replied in the negative.
