State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present: Mr. Baljinder Singh Sra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sunny Namdev, Assistant Advocate General, Haryana.

MANISHA BATRA, J :-

The present petition has been filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNSS') by the petitioner seeking grant of regular bail in case bearing FIR No. 107 dated 24.07.2024 registered under Sections 190, 191(2), 193(3), 115(2), 118(1), 118(2), 109, 351(2), 351(3), 333 of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNS') (Section 118(2) added and Section 333 deleted later on) at Police Station Rori, District Sirsa.

2. The aforementioned FIR was registered on the basis of the statement recorded by the complainant, Gurjeevan Singh, alleging that on the night of 20.07.2024, he along with his family members, was present in his house and his friend, Gurmeet Singh, had come to meet him. Suddenly, on hearing the noise of firing of some shots, his elder brother, Pargat Singh, went outside and found that three vehicles were parked outside the gate of their house. The complainant and his friend Gurmeet Singh also came outside. Within their sight, the petitioner along with the co-accused and some unknown persons alighted from the vehicles and opened an attack upon the complainant and others. Accused Sukhwinder Singh @ Gaggu struck a blow with a sword on the person of Pargat Singh and accused Lovepreet Singh struck a blow with sword on the head of Pargat Singh. The petitioner fired a shot with a pistol towards them with intent to kill them, but they had a narrow escape. The other assailants also caused injuries to them. The complainant and his companions rushed inside their house to save themselves, but were assaulted in their house also, and thereafter, the assailants fled away. The complainant along with the other injured was rushed to the hospital. On his statement, the aforementioned FIR was registered. Investigation proceedings were initiated. During investigation, the petitioner was arrested on 27.06.2025. Co-accused were also arrested. Investigation now stands completed.

3. It is argued by learned counsel for the petitioner that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He is in custody since long. He is alleged to have started aerial firing. No gunshots were fired by him. No empty shell or mark of firing of the pistols had been recovered from the spot. No firearm injury has been sustained by anyone or attributed to the petitioner. In fact, the members of the accused party had sustained several injuries in the incident. A cross-FIR was also registered. The accused, Kulwant Singh @ Moni and Joginder Singh have been extended the benefit of bail. On parity, the petitioner deserves to be given the same benefit. He has clean antecedents. His continued detention would not serve any useful purpose. It is therefore urged that the petitioner deserves to be released on bail.

4. Per contra, learned State counsel has argued that keeping in view the gravity of the allegations as levelled against the petitioner, he does not deserve to be extended the benefit of bail. Therefore, it is urged that the petition does not deserve to be allowed.

5. This Court has heard learned counsel for the parties at considerable length.

6. The petitioner is alleged to have formed membership of an unlawful assembly with the co-accused and, in prosecution of the common object of that assembly, is alleged to have caused injuries to the victim. However, no specific injury has been attributed to him. No injury from any firearm which was allegedly used by the petitioner had been sustained by any member of the complainant party. Though his presence at the spot and participation in the occurrence prima facie stands establish from the allegations in the FIR, however, pre-trial incarceration should not be a replica of post-conviction sentences. The petitioner has been in custody since 27.06.2025, i.e. for a period of four months and twenty days. No useful purpose is going to be served by detaining him in custody anymore. In view of the circumstances as enumerated above, coupled with the nature of the attribution made to the petitioner, his clean antecedents, on parity and the other factors peculiar to this case, this Court is of the considered opinion that no purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner in custody any further during the course of trial. For the reasons mentioned above, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate concerned.

7. It is, however, clarified that the observations made hereinabove shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.

8. Since the main petition has been allowed, pending application, if any, is rendered infructuous.
