4. Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that as per allegations in the FIR, petitioner Balkar Singh along with Krishan Singh allegedly committed trespass in the house of complainant. Thereafter, they abused him and petitioner is stated to have slapped him and gave fist and kick blows and thereafter, threw him on the ground, as a result of which his upper teeth got loose. Learned counsel further contended that co-accused Krishan has been granted the benefit of anticipatory bail by the learned trial Court. The alleged injuries were caused by fist and kick blows. Nothing is to be recovered from the petitioner. All the offences, except the offence relating to trespass are bailable. Learned counsel next contended that petitioner is ready to join the investigation and to abide by the conditions that may be imposed by the Court and benefit of anticipatory bail be extended in favour of the petitioner.

5. On the other hand, learned State counsel has opposed the bail and argued that petitioner is not entitled to concession of bail in view of the gravity of the offence.
