

CR-7495-2025

-1-

137 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CR-7495-2025

Date of Decision: 28.10.2025

BALVINDER KAUR GHAG AND OTHERS

....Petitioners

Versus

GENERAL PUBLIC

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARMOD GOYAL

Present: Mr. Manish Soni, Advocate,
 Mr. Piyush Singh, Advocate and
 Ms. Poorvi Sharma, Advocate for the petitioners.

Parmod Goyal, J. (Oral)

Petitioners are aggrieved by the impugned order dated 19.10.2024, passed by learned Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Garhshankar, vide which while granting succession certificate in favour of petitioners the learned Court of first instance has directed petitioners to furnish indemnity bonds in the sum of Rs.2 Crores with one surety in the like amount within a period of two months, undertaking to indemnify the future claimant of benefits allowed in favour of petitioners.

2. I find merit in the sole arguments raised on behalf of petitioners, that no reasons were given by the learned Court for putting up onerous conditions on the petitioners. Accordingly, the matter is remanded back to the Court to decide the application afresh and in case any condition is imposed, that shall be subject to speaking/reasoned order.

CR-7495-2025

3. Revision Petition accordingly stands disposed of.

28.10.2025
chiranjeev

(PARMOD GOYAL)
JUDGE

Whether Speaking/Reasoned	:	Yes/No
Whether Reportable	:	Yes/No