MANJARI NEHRU KAUL.J (Oral)

Present petition has been filed under Section 483 BNSS, 2023 for releasing the petitioner on regular bail in FIR No.187 dated 10.4.2024 under Sections 379-B BNS (later on added Sections 34 and 411 of IPC), registered at Police Station Sadar Bhiwani, District Bhiwani.

Learned counsel for the petitioner been in custody since 30.4.2024 in a case of false implication. Not only, the challan has been presented but even the material witnesses out of 24 witnesses cited by the prosecution have been examined; during the pendency of the trial, the parties have ironed out their differences and amicably settled all disputes between them.

Mr. S.S. Bairagi has filed Vakalatnama on behalf of respondent no.2. He does not dispute the submissions made by the counsel opposite a petitioner for being enlarged on bail.

Learned State counsel has feigned ignorance about the compromise being effected between the parties. However, learned State counsel has reiterated the allegations leve Annexure P-1 and reproduced as under:-

Learned State counsel has, however not disputed that all the material witnesses stand examined in the present case.

In the facts and circumstances, the material witnesses stand examined coupled with the fact that the parties have also arrived at an amicable settlement, this Court deems it fit to extend the concession of bail to the petitioner as no further incarceration of the petitioner is required.

Accordingly, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is admitted to bail on his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned. However, it is made clear that anything observed hereinabove shall not be construed to be an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
