3. Learned counsel contends that the petitioners, aged 20, 22 and 30 years old, have been in custody for 3 months. There is a delay of 3 days in lodging the FIR. He alleges false implication as there was a money dispute amongst them and the complainant and the compromise between them did not materialise, thus, he lodged the FIR. There is no MLR also, though the allegations of beaten the complainant have been levelled as also there is nothing to connect them with the alleged incident. been framed and in all there are 19 prosecution witnesses. The petitioners are not involved in any other case.

5. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations levelled against the petitioners by the complainant of snatching Rs.20,000/- from him as also beating him up. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case and the petitioner not being involved in any other case.

6. Heard.
