before this Court but the petitioner-father was not granted enough time to meet the child.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent, however, has denied the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner and submits that the respondent-mother is not opposing the petitioner to meet the child and affirm that the child would be taken in the Ambeince Mall on 20.04.2025 at 11:00 a.m on the date convenient to them and the petitioner-father would be allowed to meet the child in a cordial atmosphere.

4. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of and the parties would be at liberty to pursue their remedy if any further cause of action accrues.
