DUSHYANT SEHGAL

..Petitioner

Versus

NEHA ARORA

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Bhupender Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

1. The petitioner herein was married to respondent but subsequently the marriage was dissolved by a decree of divorce. Pursuant to judgment and decree dated 07.03.2022, the petitioner has been directed to pay permanent alimony of Rs.10,00,000/-. The execution application is pending, in which the presence of the petitioner is sought to be secured by issuing conditional warrant of arrest. On 12.11.2024, the conditional warrant of arrest issued against the petitioner were received back unexecuted, hence, the Court directed the executing constable to appear in Court and explain the reasons. The correctness of such order is challenged before this Court.

2. It is evident that the petitioner is a judgment debtor. He has to appear in the execution petition and furnish his explanation. In such circumstances, there is no ground to interfere with the impugned order is made out because the Court has only directed the constable responsible for execution to appear and explain the reasons for non-execution of warrant of arrest. It shall always be open to the petitioner to appear and furnish the explanation.

3. With these observations, the present petition stands disposed of.
