N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 with a prayer to grant anticipatory bail to him in case FIR No.749 dated 19.09.2024, registered under Sections 406, 420, 120-B, 506 of IPC, at Police Station Sector-58, District Faridabad.
2. While issuing notice of motion on 17.12.2024, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court had noticed the following contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, contends that a perusal of the allegations levelled in the FIR indicate that the dispute, if any, between the parties is essentially of a civil nature which for reasons but obvious has been twisted to be given a criminal complexion. It has been further submitted that the complainant, with respect to the alleged business transactions with the petitioner, has already availed of his civil remedy by issuing a legal notice to the petitioner and the petitioner too had responded by indicating his willingness to sit across the table and sort out the dispute between them. ”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the case was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court and has been amicably resolved between the parties. He further submits that the petitioner and the authorized representative of respondent No.2/complainant have already signed a settlement dated 15.02.2025 and he shall be bound by the terms of the said settlement.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel has affirmed the aforesaid facts.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

6. Since, the parties have settled their dispute by way of an agreement/settlement dated 15.02.2025, the present petition is allowed and petitioner is granted concession of anticipatory bail, subject to the conditions as provided under Section 482(2) of the BNSS. It will be open for the Investigating Officer to call the petitioner to join investigation, if so required, by issuing a written notice in this regard and he shall abide by the conditions mentioned in Section 482(2) of the BNSS.
