IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-62188-2025

Date of decision: 11.11.2025

RAJU KUMAR ALIAS RAJU

....Petitioner

Versus

STATE OF PUNJAB

....Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL

Present:- Ms. Simsi Dhir Malhotra, Advocate for the petitioner.

RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been preferred under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, assailing the impugned order dated 17.10.2018 (Annexure P-1), whereby the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, District Hoshiarpur has declared the petitioner as a proclaimed offender.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that FIR bearing No.11 dated 03.02.2018 u/s 363, 328, 34 IPC at P.S. Bullowal, District Hoshiarpur was registered against unknown and name of the petitioner came during investigation. He submits that the petitioner went abroad on 08.04.2018 and returned on 04.10.2025. He submits that in the meanwhile, learned Trial Court issued non-bailable warrants of arrest on 23.08.2018 for 06.09.2018. He further submits that since the petitioner was abroad the non-bailable warrants were received back unexecuted. His absence ultimately resulted in his being declared proclaimed offender vide order dated 17.10.2018 (Annexure P-1).

3. He further argued that petitioner was never served with any notice/warrant. The impugned order has been passed on the basis of statement of serving official regarding proclamation only. He further submits that as per his statement (Annexure P-7) petitioner's mother was present who told that the petitioner had gone abroad and as such requirements of section 82 Cr.P.C. (section 84 BNSS) were not complied with as neither efforts were made to serve the petitioner abroad nor valid proclamation was carried out as per law. He further submits that the petitioner undertakes to appear before the trial Court on each and every date of hearing. Hence, he prays for quashing of the said order.

4. Notice of motion.

5. Mr. Ravinder Singh, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondent-State and supports the impugned order, contending that the petitioner deliberately avoided appearance, leaving the trial Court with no option but to issue proclamation to secure his presence.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

7. The criminal justice system, though permitting curtailment of personal liberty, mandates that such deprivation must strictly conform to the procedure established by law. The said procedure must be fair, just, and reasonable in terms of Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

8. A co-ordinate Bench of this Court in CRM-M-41715-2021 titled "Anita Sharma v. State of Punjab ", date of decision 26.03.2021, has summarized the essential requirements of Section 82 Cr.P.C. as under:-

"(i) Prior issuance of warrant of arrest by the Court is sine qua non for issuance and publication of the proclamation and the Court has to first issue warrant of arrest against the person concerned. (See Rohit Kumar v. State of Delhi: 2008 CrI. J. 2561).

(ii) There must be a report before the Court that the person against whom warrant was issued had absconded or had been concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest could not be executed against him. However, the Court is not bound to take evidence in this regard before issuing a Proclamation under Section 82(1) of the Cr.P.C.. (See Rohit Kumar v. State of Delhi:2008CrI. J. 2561).

(iii) The Court cannot issue the Proclamation as a matter of course because the Police is asking for it. The Court must be prima facie satisfied that the person has absconded or is concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest, previously issued, cannot be executed, despite reasonable diligence. (See Bishundayal Mahton and others v. Emperor: AIR 1943 Patna 366 and Devender Singh Negi v. State of U.P.: 1994 CrI LJ (Allahabad HC) 1783).

(iv) The requisite date and place for appearance must be specified in the proclamation requiring such person to appear on such date at the specified place. Such date must not be less than 30 clear days from the date of issuance an publication of the proclamation. (See GurappaGugal and others v. State of Mysore 1969 CriLJ 826 and Shokat Ali v. State of Haryana: 2020(2) RCR (Criminal) 339).

*(v) Where the period between issuance and publication of the proclamation and the specified date of hearing is less than thirty days, the accused cannot be declared a proclaimed person/offender and the proclamation has to be issued and published again. (See Dilbagh Singh v. State of Punjab (P&II): 2015 (8) RCR (criminal) 166 and Ashok

Kumar v. State of Haryana and another : 2013 (4) RCR (Criminal) 550

(vi) The Proclamation has to be published in the manner laid down in Section 82(2) of the Cr.P.C. For publication, the proclamation has to be first publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides; then the same has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village and thereafter a copy of the proclamation has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the Court-house. The three subclauses (a)-(c) in Section 82 (2)(i) of the Cr.P.C. are conjunctive and not disjunctive, which means that there would be no valid publication of the proclamation unless all the three modes of publication are proved. (See Pawan Kumar Gupta v. The State of W.B.: 1973 CriLJ 1368). Where the Court so orders a copy of the proclamation has to be additionally published in a daily newspaper circulating in the place in which the accused ordinarily resides. Advisably, proclamation has to be issued with four copies so that one each of the three copies of the proclamation may be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides, to some conspicuous place of such town or village and to some conspicuous part of the Court-house and report regarding publication may be made on the fourth copy of the proclamation. Additional copy will be required where the proclamation is also required to be published in the newspaper.

(vii) Statement of the serving officer has to be recorded by the Court as to the date and mode of publication of the proclamation. (See Birad Dan v. State: 1958 CriLJ 965).

viii) The Court issuing the proclamation has to make a statement in writing in its order that the proclamation was duly published on a specified day in a manner specified in Section 82(2)(i) of the Cr.P.C.. Such statement in writing by the Court is declared to be conclusive evidence that the requirements of Section 82 have been complied with and that the proclamation was published on such day. (See Birad Dan v. State: 1958 CriLJ 965).

(xi) The conditions specified in Section 82(2) of the Cr.P.C. for the publication of a Proclamation against an absconder are mandatory. Any non-compliance therewith cannot be cured as an 'irregularity' and renders the Proclamation and proceedings subsequent thereto a nullity. (See Devendra Singh Negi alias Debu v. State of U.P. and another 1994 CriLJ 1783 and Pal Singh v. The State: 1955 CriLJ 318)".

9. A perusal of the impugned order and statement of serving official reveals that the procedure prescribed under section 82 Cr.P.C. (section 84 BNSS) was not complied with. Section 82(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure lays down the procedure for publication of a proclamation. The three conditions, contained in sub-clauses (a) to (c) of Section 82(2)(i), are cumulative in nature. In other words, a valid proclamation can be said to have been made only when all three modes of publication are duly complied with and proved.

10. The object behind issuance of non-bailable warrants or proclamation is only to secure the presence of the accused. In the present case, the petitioner has voluntarily approached this Court and undertaken to appear before the trial Court regularly.

11. In view of the foregoing discussion, the petition is allowed. The impugned order dated 17.10.2018 (Annexure P-1), declaring the petitioner proclaimed offender, is set aside and he is directed to appear before the trial Court within four weeks from today subject to payment of Rs.10,000/- as costs to be deposited by the petitioner in Punjab State Legal Services

Authority-Disaster Relief Fund, Account No.44426937384, IFSC:SBIN0014656, State Bank of India, Sector 68, SAS Nagar, Mohali.
Upon his doing so, he shall be released on bail subject to furnishing requisite bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

12. Besides, petitioner will also submit an undertaking/affidavit that he will keep appearing during the proceedings of the trial in future and proceedings will not be delayed because of his conduct.

13. It is made clear that in case, petitioner fails to appear before the trial court within the stipulated period, this order shall be deemed to be vacated.

14. The present petition is disposed of accordingly.
