MAIN CASE

Learned counsel for respondent No. 1 has produced a communication dated 06.03.2025 written by the office of Directorate of Health and Family Welfare, Punjab to the Civil Surgeon, Patiala, which is taken on record.

[2] Learned counsel for respondent No. 1 relies upon the aforesaid communication-cum-order dated 06.03.2025, as per which, the claim of petitioner towards medical reimbursement has been accorded to the extent of Rs. 3,61,582/-.He further informs that the said amount shall be released in favour of the petitioner within fifteen days from today.

[3] In view of the above undertaking, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the present petition any further.

[4] Dismissed as not pressed.

[5] However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, as per undertaking, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in that eventuality, the erring / concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.

[6] Rule stands discharged.

[7] In case the petitioner still feels aggrieved of the aforesaid order dated 06.03.2025, he shall be at liberty to avail his remedy as per law.

[8] Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
