HARKESH MANUJA J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions, submits that the arrears towards grant of benefit of two increments being National Awardee amounting to Rs.49,000/ or Rs.50,000/-approx. shall be credited in the account of the petitioner within 03 days from today. He, further submits that the case of the petitioner with respect to revision of pension has been sent to the office of Accountant General, Punjab on 03.02.2025 and the arrears in lieu thereof along with revised pension shall be released to the petitioner within 03 weeks from today.

2. In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner does not want to press the present petition.

3. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed as not pressed. Rule stands discharged.

4. However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, as per undertaking, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in such eventuality, the erring concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.
5. Pending application, if any, also stands disposed of.
