AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.316 dated 09.11.2024, registered under Sections 18(b), 27A, 29 of NDPS Act at Police Station Urban Estate, Hisar.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody almost 1 year having been arrested on 24.11.2024. His name based on the disclosure statement of co-accused Ishwar Singh, who is in custody, from whom the alleged recovery of 2.920 kg of opium was effected. No recovery was effected from him. There is no evidence to connect the petitioner with the other co-accused. He is involved in one case under Sections 323 and 341 IPC, wherein he is on bail. Charges have been framed on 30.05.2025 and out of total 24 prosecution witnesses, none has been examined. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that the specific allegations levelled against the petitioner by his co-accused, who was apprehended at the spot with commercial quantity of contraband. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case and the petitioner being on bail in other case.

4. Heard.

5. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc."

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for almost 1 year; on bail in other case; no recovery was effected from him; charges have been framed on 30.05.2025, out of total 24 prosecution witnesses, none has been examined, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

7. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-

- (i) The petitioner will not tamper with the evidence during the trial.
