....Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL

Present:- Mr. K.S. Sidhu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Amritpal Singh Gill, DAG, Punjab.

RUPINDERJIT CHAHAL, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 483 BNSS read with Section 528 for grant of interim regular bail to the petitioner for a period of 08 weeks from the date of release, on account of taking care of his pregnant wife, in case FIR No. 176 dated 22.07.2025 under Section 21(c) NDPS Act (later on added Section 27A-A/29 of NDPS Act), Police Station Sadar Faridkot, District Faridkot, Punjab (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's wife is in the advanced stage of pregnancy and is not able to take care of herself. He further submits that the presence of the petitioner is necessary to provide proper medication, care and attention to his wife. Hence, he prays that the petitioner be released on interim regular bail for a period of 08 weeks for the same.

3. Learned State counsel has filed status report/reply by way of affidavit of Superintendent of Police, Sub Division Faridkot on behalf of respondent-State in Court today, which is taken on record. Relying upon the same, he acceded the fact that the wife of the petitioner was pregnant, but has delivered a baby boy on 21.11.2025. He further submits that both the mother and child are healthy, living in a joint family and being looked after by other family members and thus, the release of the petitioner is not required for the same. He further submits that the offence committed by the petitioner is serious in nature. He is indulged in drug trafficking and is also involved in multiple similar cases. The recovery in the present case is also of commercial quantity and there is apprehension that he may indulge in similar offences if released on bail. Hence, he prays that the present petition be dismissed.

4. In view of the above, since the wife of the petitioner has already delivered a baby boy and is being looked after by the other family members, no extraordinary circumstances are there to release the petitioner on interim bail. Hence, present petition is dismissed.
