the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 04.12.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 2 years and 11 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of being alongwith the co-accused, who snatched the gold chain from the wife of the complainant. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case; co-accused having been released on bail and the petitioner being on bail in most of other cases.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc." Reiterating in Prabhakar Tewari vs. State of UP and another, (2020) 11 SCC 648, it was observed that, "The offence alleged no doubt is grave and serious and there are several criminal cases pending against the accused. These factors by themselves cannot be the basis for refusal of prayer for bail."
