

CRM-M-68247-2025

1

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH
137

CRM-M-68247-2025
Date of Decision:-04.12.2025

Lukhy @ Lucky

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Mr. Aman Mittal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Japjot Singh, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Simranjit Singh, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

The instant petition has been filed seeking quashing of FIR No. 0159 dated 14.07.2025 under Sections 85 and 316(2) of BNS, 2023 registered at Police Station Kartarpur, District Jalandhar Rural and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 15.11.2025 (Annexure P-2).

2. At the outset, Mr. Simranjit Singh, Advocate has put in appearance and filed his Power of Attorney on behalf of respondent No. 2 in Court today, which is taken on record, subject to all just exceptions.

3. Although both the parties have executed a compromise deed dated 15.11.2025 and have agreed to resolve all disputes, however, a perusal of the FIR demonstrates the atrocities suffered by the complainant to be apparently unpardonable as in one year of marriage she was not only beaten up badly but specific incidents and acts have been alleged against the petitioner. In addition, the allegations were also that when the complainant was eight months' pregnant, the petitioner who is allegedly a drug addict, violated the complainant, which led to the demise of the unborn child and the medical condition of the complainant was also very serious. All these serious allegations can be verified by the medical reports and apparently it seems that the complainant is under some coercion for executing a compromise.

4. In light of the above, since the present case brings out a glaring atrocity suffered by the respondent as detailed in FIR and although the counsel for respondent No. 2, who is present in Court, does not object to the compromise effected between the parties, but this Court is of the opinion that the compromise apparently seems to be an outcome of coercion and pressure. The apathy of the complainant cannot be set aside and therefore, the present petition deserves to be dismissed and the State is directed to file a composite report with regard to the action taken by them in the above-said FIR within one month from today. In addition to the above, the State of Punjab is also directed to extend protection of life and liberty of the complainant and verify from the medical evidence with regard to the alleged allegations made by the complainant as to whether the allegations have some veracity or not.

5. In case, it is found that the allegations levelled in the FIR are not corroborated by any evidence, the parties are at liberty to approach this Court for the relief prayed herein. Accordingly, the present petition stands dismissed at this stage.

6. List for compliance on 28.01.2026.

CRM-M-68247-2025

3

7. Copy of this order be also sent to the District Legal Services Authority, Jalandhar to approach the complainant and give her all possible legal help.

(ALOK JAIN)
JUDGE

December 04, 2025

Parul

Whether speaking/reasoned:-	Yes/No
Whether Reportable:-	Yes/No