IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(102)

CRM-M-67803-2025.
Date of Decision:-23.12.2025.

Kuldeep Singh @ Keepa

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Mr. J.S. Bhinder, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Japjot Singh, AAG, Punjab.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition is for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.123 dated 13.10.2025 under Sections 74, 79, 296, 351(2), 3(5) of BNS, 2023, registered at Police Station Hathur, Ludhiana (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present FIR on the statement of the complainant. He further submits that the only allegation made against the petitioner in the FIR is that, he used filthy language towards the complainant and her parents. However, there is no allegation of molesting the complainant. It is further contended that there is delay of one day in registration of the present FIR and no other case is pending against the petitioner, much less any recovery, which is to be effected from the petitioner. Hence, the petitioner deserves the concession of anticipatory bail.

3. Per contra, learned State counsel has submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender and has 11 other cases registered against him, out of which in 06 cases, the petitioner has been convicted and in 01 case, compromise has been effected.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and gone through the record.

5. Considering the antecedents of the petitioner along with the gravity and seriousness of the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner does not entitle him for any extraordinary concession of anticipatory bail. More so, the petitioner's son who is co-accused in the present FIR is also absconding from the process of law.

7. Accordingly, finding no merit, the present petition is dismissed.
