Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Bhardwaj

Present: Mr. Onkar Rai, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Rajesh Bhardwaj, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioners have filed the present petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of directions to respondent no.2 and 3 for protection of their lives and liberty who are apprehending danger at the hands of respondent nos.4 to 6 and also to take action on their complaint/representation dated 15.11.2025 (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner no.2 was to get married with daughter of respondent no.6 and the marriage was fixed for 17.11.2025, however, due to certain unavoidable circumstances, the said marriage was cancelled and on account of the same, a dispute arose between both the families and now the petitioners are facing threat to their lives and liberty. He submits that for the redressal of their grievances, the petitioners filed complaint/representation dated 15.11.2025 (Annexure P-1) before respondent no.2 but no action is being taken upon it.

4. Ms. Ramta Chowdhary, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and Mr. Babneet Singh, Advocate, puts in appearance on behalf of respondent no.6 and files his Vakalatnama, which is taken on record. He opposed the present petition while submitting that petitioners' family humiliated the daughter of respondent no.6 and his family members and, thus, the present petition deserves dismissal.

5. Without entering upon an exercise to evaluate the evidentiary value of the documents placed on the file, however, keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, I dispose of the present petition with a direction to respondent no.2- the Commissioner of Police, Ludhiana, to decide the complaint/representation (Annexure P-1) of the petitioners and grant them protection, if any threat to their lives and liberty is perceived.

6. It is clarified that this order shall not be taken to grant immunity to the petitioners from legal action for violation of law, if any, committed by them.
