

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

123

CWP-37300-2025

Date of Decision: 23.12.2025

DR. JOGINDER SINGH

...Petitioner(s)

Versus

STATE OF HARYANA AND OTHERS

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA

Present:- Mr. Sanjeev Kodan, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Tanushree Gupta, Senior Deputy Advocate General,
Haryana.

TRIBHUVAN DAHIYA, J. (Oral)

The petition has been filed, inter alia, seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to grant selection grade of pay to the petitioner.

2. Learned State counsel contends that the reason for not considering the petitioner for grant of selection grade of pay is that he has not rendered five years of rural service which is an essential requirement. Although the petitioner was earlier posted in a rural college at Bawal, he accepted his deputation for 180 days in an urban college, vide order dated 16.08.2024. These facts have been mentioned in the impugned speaking order dated 06.11.2025, Annexure P-20, as well.

3. Faced with the situation, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to the petitioner to approach the respondents for posting him in a rural college which would enable him to fulfil the essential requirement.

4. Permitted to do so.
5. Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty prayed for. In case a representation seeking rural posting is made by the petitioner, the same will be decided by the respondents within six weeks of its receipt, in accordance with law.
