Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE AARADHNA SAWHNEY

Present : Mr. Tarun Singla, Advocate for the petitioner.

AARADHNA SAWHNEY, J.(ORAL)

1. Challenge in the present petition is to order dated 13.11.2024 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Bathinda, vide which, while suspending the sentence of the appellant awarded on 28.05.2024 (by learned trial Court in Criminal Complaint No. NACT-3828-2023 titled as 'Jaspal Grover and another vs. Rawinder Kumar'), petitioner (appellant before the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Bathinda) was directed to deposit 20% of the compensation.

2. Vide judgment of conviction/sentence dated 28.05.2024 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Bathinda, the petitioner was convicted and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of one year for commission of offence punishable under Section 138 of NI Act and was further directed to pay compensation i.e. Rs.3,50,000/- along with interest @ 9% per annum to the complainant. Dissatisfied with the same, the petitioner preferred an appeal against the said judgment of conviction and order of sentence before the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Bathinda. The learned Appellate Court vide order dated 13.11.2024, suspended the sentence of the petitioner subject to depositing of 20% of the compensation amount.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the learned Appellate Court failed to appreciate the facts of the case in the correct perspective and imposed the condition of deposit of 20% of the compensation amount. Learned counsel submits that petitioner belonging to the economically weaker class is facing acute financial crunch. He has a good case on merits and that the learned trial Court did not meticulously analyse the evidence adduced on the case file. In the light of the submissions advanced herein above, it has been urged that the conditions so imposed by the learned Appellate Court being arbitrary and in violation of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari vs. M.P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. and others, 2023 (180) SCL 373, be set aside/modified.

4. Heard. Documents on record perused.

5. The question as to whether deposit of 20% of the awarded compensation amount, is mandatory while suspending the sentence, was considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari (supra), wherein it was held as under:-

“6. What is held by this Court is that a purposive interpretation should be made of Section 148 of the N.I. Act. Hence, normally, Appellate Court will be justified in imposing the condition of deposit as provided in Section 148. However, in a case where the Appellate Court is satisfied that the condition of deposit of 20% will be unjust or imposing such a condition will amount to deprivation of the right of appeal of the appellant, exception can be made for the reasons specifically recorded.

7. Therefore, when Appellate Court considers the prayer under Section 389 of the Cr.P.C. of an accused who has been convicted for offence under Section 138 of the N.I. Act, it is always open for the Appellate Court to consider whether it is an exceptional case which warrants grant of suspension of sentence without imposing the condition of deposit of 20% of the fine/compensation amount. As stated earlier, if the Appellate Court comes to the conclusion that it is an exceptional case, the reasons for coming to the said conclusion must be recorded.

8. The submission of the learned counsel appearing for the original complainant is that neither before the Sessions Court nor before the High Court, there was a plea made by the appellants that an exception may be made in these cases and the requirement of deposit or minimum 20% of the amount be dispensed with. He submits that if such a prayer was not made by the appellants, there were no reasons for the Courts to consider the said plea.

9. We disagree with the above submission. When an accused applies under Section 389 of the Cr.P.C. for suspension of sentence, he normally applies for grant of relief of suspension of sentence without any condition. Therefore, when a blanket order is sought by the appellants, the Court has to consider whether the case falls in exception or not.

10. In these cases, both the Sessions Courts and the High Court have proceeded on the erroneous premise that deposit of minimum 20% amount is an absolute rule which does not accommodate any exception.”

6. In view of the law laid down by Jamboo Bhandari (supra), learned Appellate Court was required to consider as to whether the present case falls within the exceptions or not. No specific reasons have been assigned while imposing the condition of deposit of 20% of the amount.

The impugned order is, therefore, not sustainable. Present petition is disposed of with a direction to learned Appellate Court to re-examine the case afresh, after affording an opportunity to the petitioner to address his arguments regarding exceptional circumstances warranting waiver of requirement to deposit 20% of the compensation awarded by the learned trial Court.
