otherwise, if any action would be required against the petitioner, the same would be taken strictly as per the established procedure of law.

Inspector Harparkash Singh, is present in Court and he has submitted that the allegation made regarding raiding the house of the petitioner, is without any basis, as the police never raided his house.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the authorities concerned that in case any action is required to be initiated against the petitioner after having been granted bail, the same be taken strictly in accordance with law. The petitioner is at liberty to avail his remedy in case any further cause of action accrues to him.
