ORDER

1. Learned senior counsel for the appellants submits that taking into account that some of the respondents have already preferred Special Leave Petitions before the Apex Court to assail the same impugned order, the appellants instead of pressing the present appeals, will also approach the Apex Court by way of Special Leave Petitions. She, therefore, has instructions not to press the present appeals.
2. She, however, prays that it may be made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the grounds raised in the present appeals.

3. In the light of the aforesaid, we dispose of the present appeals as not pressed by leaving it open for the appellants to seek appropriate remedies as per law.
4. Needless, to state that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the grounds raised in the present appeals.
