With the intervention of relatives, friends & well-wishers, the matter has been amicably settled in terms of Compromise Deed dated 20.11.2024. It is further submitted that a cross-FIR No.509/2019

under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC had also been registered, which also has been agreed to be quashed by the parties.

7. The parties have submitted that all the disputes have been amicably settled vide Settlement Deed dated 20.11.2024 and thus, no fruitful purpose will be served in continuing with the FIR.

8. The present Petition has been signed by the Petitioners and is supported by their Affidavits. The parties have reaffirmed the terms of the settlement arrived at vide Settlement Deed dated 20.11.2024 and they also submit that the said Settlement has been arrived at between the parties, without any pressure and coercion.

9. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion and also the fact that the present matter is related to friends cum neighbours, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

10. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

11. Accordingly, FIR No.0509/2019 under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC registered at PS: Model Town and all other proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

12. Petition along with pending Application, is disposed of accordingly.
