ORDER

23.05.2025

CRL.M.A. 4118/2025 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 900/2025

3. By way of present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of FIR bearing no. 267/2021, registered at Police Station Burari, Delhi, for the offences punishable under Sections 406/498A/345-A/354-B/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
4. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 appear before this Court through video-conferencing. They have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Burari, Delhi.

5. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that the marriage between the petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was solemnized on 29.11.2013 as per the Hindu rites and customs. One female child was born from their wedlock on 16.02.2015. After some time due, to different lifestyles and temperamental differences, both the parties could not reside with each other and since 10.05.2019, petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 started living separately from each other. Thereafter, respondent no. 2 had got the present FIR registered against the petitioners under the relevant sections.

6. It is stated that both the parties have amicably settled the present matter before the learned Mahila Court on 20.03.2024, wherein it has also been agreed upon between the parties that the future rights of the child will not be effected. The statements of the parties to the said effect have been recorded by the learned Joint Registrar (Judicial) on 02.05.2025.

7. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. A Demand draft bearing No. 965575 dated 10.01.2025 drawn at Punjab National Bank, Sector-27, Chandigarh, in the sum of Rs.3,50,000/- has been handed over by the learned counsel for the petitioners to respondent no. 2 in Court today. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

8. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

9. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 267/2021, registered at Police Station Burari, Delhi, for the offences punishable under Sections 406/498A/345-A/354-B/34 of IPC, and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, are quashed.

10. In view of the above, the present petition stands disposed of.

11. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
