ORDER

% 21.08.2025

1. Dissatisfied with the inaction by the respondents, the petitioner/complainant seeks issuance of directions to the Central Bureau of Investigation and National Investigation Agency (although they haven't been arrayed as parties) to conduct an inquiry into his allegations against one Colonel Amit Bisht and other complicit officials.
2. Heard.
3. The petitioner in person states that the issue at hand is of criminal nature and attracts various sections of the Indian Penal Code. Moreover, he submits that earlier also a Writ Petition(Civil) No. 1609/2025 was filed. The same was disposed of vide an order dated 10.02.2025 by the Division Bench of this Court. The petitioner was given liberty to seek alternative remedy. It was also observed that the issue raised by the Petitioner therein was a service law issue. He now submits that the matter at hand pertains to offences committed against general public and seeks indulgence of this Court.

4. Learned counsels appearing for the respondents opposes the petition arguing that it is a frivolous writ petition and the same is liable to be dismissed in limine.

5. Be that as it may, in my opinion, the petitioner ought to have availed other available legal remedies for redressal of his grievance before approaching this Court.

6. Ordinarily, in cases of grievances arising from unfair or improper handling of a complaint, the aggrieved person can seek recourse by approaching a superior police officer as per Section 30 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. If the grievance remains unaddressed, one can then approach a Magistrate of competent jurisdiction under Section 175(3) Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, who can seek submission of a report by the police. Reference may also be had to Apex Court judgment in Sakiri Vasu versus State of U.P. and Others*, (2008) 2 SCC 409.

7. In the premise, instant petition is disposed of along with pending application(s), if any.

8. Petitioner is at liberty to take recourse to the remedy as may be advisable in accordance with law.
