(iii) Award compensation of Rs. 5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lakh) in favour of the petitioner and against the respondents for the harassment and mental agony caused to them,

(iv) Cost of the petition also be awarded in favour of the Petitioner and against the respondents.”

4. Learned counsel for Respondents/TPDDL appearing on advance copy of the writ petition submits that disconnection of electricity was on account of theft and a bill has been generated and issued to the Petitioner. In support, copies of the bill and inspection report are handed over, which are taken on record. Copy of the documents have also been handed over to learned counsel for the Petitioner.

5. At this stage, on instructions from the Petitioner, learned counsel for the Petitioner seeks to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to approach Civil Court.

6. Writ petition along with pending application is disposed of with liberty as prayed for, in accordance with law.
