Pension; And / Or

(b) A Writ of Certiorari or any other appropriate order for quashing / setting aside Respondent's order dated 09 Jan 2025 vide which representation of the Petitioner dated 01 Dec 2024 for grant of PRORATA pension by condonation of the shortfall / deficiency of less than one year in his qualifying service has been rejected; And / Or

3. The learned counsel for the respondents, who appears on advance notice of this petition, placing reliance on the Order dated 05.02.2024 passed by this Court in W.P.(C) 1652/2024, titled Roshan Lal Dhull v. Union of India & Ors., submits that the said petition, which raises a similar grievance and makes a similar prayer challenging the policy, has been refused to be entertained by this Court by observing that the jurisdiction for the same shall lie with the Armed Forces Tribunal in view of Section 3 (o) of the Armed Forces Tribunal Act, 2007.

4. Keeping in view the above, as also the Judgment of the Full Bench of this Court in Squadron Leader Neelam Chahar v. Union of India & Ors., 2023:DHC:4578-DB, we are of the opinion that as the petitioner has an alternate efficacious remedy before the learned Armed Forces Tribunal, we would not like to entertain the present petition in the exercise of our powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

2025:DHC:1474-DB

5. The petition is, accordingly, dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to raise his grievance before the appropriate forum of jurisdiction.
