

$~88, 89 & 91

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI
+ CM(M) 2081/2024 & CM APPL. 14859-14860/2024 & CM APPL. 30760/2024
SH GOPAL KRISHAN SHEKHRI AND ANOTHERPetitioner

Through: Ms. Anjali Chauhan and Mr. Rishabh Mishra, Advocates

versus

SH K.K. KHANNA SINCE DECEASED AND ANOTHERRespondent

Through: Mr. P.K. Rawal, Advocate

+ CM(M) 2496/2024 & CM APPL. 26574/2024
GOPAL KRISHAN SHEKHRI AND ANR.Petitioner

Through: Ms. Anjali Chauhan and Mr. Rishabh Mishra, Advocates

versus

SH. K.K. KHANNA (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LEGAL HEIRSRespondent

Through: Mr. P.K. Rawal, Advocate

+ CM(M) 2403/2024
GOPAL KRISHAN SHEKHRI AND ANRPetitioner

Through: Ms. Anjali Chauhan and Mr. Rishabh Mishra, Advocates

versus

K K KHANNA (SINCE DECEASED) THROUGH HIS LEGAL HEIRSRespondent

Through: Mr. P.K. Rawal, Advocate

CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ JAIN

ORDER
26.05.2025

%

1. It has been informed by learned counsel for petitioners that since possession has already been taken over by the concerned decree-holder, petitioners herein are no longer interested in pursuing with their present objection petition and seek to withdraw the same.
2. It is also informed that earlier the present petition was being pursued by Mr. B.L. Gupta, Advocate and now, new advocates i.e. Ms. Anjali Chauhan and Mr. Rishabh Mishra, who represent the petitioners, have specific instructions in this regard and do not wish to press these petitions.
3. They also undertake to file vakalatnama filed within two days.
4. Let vakalatnama be filed, accordingly.
5. However, in view of the aforesaid statement made at the Bar, all three petitions are disposed of as not pressed.

MANOJ JAIN, J

MAY 26, 2025/dr/shs