1. These are the petitions seeking appointment of a Sole Arbitrator to adjudicate the disputes between the parties.
2. It is stated that the petitioner has appointed its Nominee Arbitrator and the respondent has also appointed its Nominee Arbitrator.

3. The Nominee Arbitrators will thereafter decide a Presiding Arbitrator.

4. In this view of the matter, the present petitions have become infructuous and are disposed of, granting liberty to the petitioner to approach the Court in case the Presiding Arbitrator is not appointed.

JASMEET SINGH, J
