1. The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following relief:

a) pass appropriate writ, direction or order quashing the impugned order dated 25.2.2025 passed by the respondent; and

2. Mr.C.Mohan Rao, the learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner, at this stage submits that the petitioner will be satisfied, if the present petition is treated as representation by the respondent/CBSE and decided in a time bound manner after affording the petitioner a meaningful opportunity including the opportunity of hearing.

3. Mr. Niyazi, the learned Standing Counsel for the respondent/CBSE, on instructions submits that the respondent has no objection in case such an order is passed and further states that the impugned order in the present petition will be given effect to only in the next session which commences from 01.04.2025.

4. In view of the above, it is directed that the present petition be treated as a representation by the respondent/CBSE and a speaking order be passed afresh on or before 31.03.2025.

5. It is further directed that a personal hearing shall be afforded to the petitioner. Any further documents which are required by the CBSE may also be requisitioned from the petitioner before the date of hearing.

6. It is further clarified that in case the CBSE deems it appropriate to conduct any surprise inspection through its Committee then the CBSE shall be at liberty to conduct the same in accordance with rules.

7. The petition is disposed of in the above terms.

8. Needless to say that the petitioner shall be at liberty to approach the Court after the speaking order is passed by the CBSE, if so advised. The order so passed shall not be given effect to till 07.04.2025.
