ORDER

16.04.2025

1. Ms. Saroj Bidawat, learned Standing Counsel appearing for Municipal Corporation of Delhi ("MCD"), submits that though she had the instructions by way of the WhatsApp message on her phone, however, she inadvertently could not see it.
2. Therefore, she submits that she could not bring to the notice of this court the fact regarding the appeal pending before the Appellate Tribunal MCD ("ATMCD"), filed by respondent no. 3.
3. The aforesaid statement is taken on record.
4. Considering the fact that an appeal has already been filed by the respondent no. 3, which is pending before the ATMCD, i.e., appeal bearing No. 137/23, titled as "Krishna Devi Versus MCD", which is stated to be listed tomorrow, i.e., 17th April, 2025, this Court is of the view that no further orders are required to be passed in the present matter at this stage.

5. The ATMCD is expected to expedite hearing in the matter and pass an order expeditiously, preferably within a period of six months, from today.

6. Accordingly, the present writ petition, along with the pending application, stands disposed of.
