5. It is further submitted that on 30.01.2024, the Respondent No. 2 lodged a complaint before CAW Cell, Seemapuri, which converted into FIR No. 0259/2024 under Sections 498A/406/506/509/34 of the IPC at P.S. Farsh Bazar.

6. It is submitted that the FIR was a consequence of the matrimonial disputes between the Respondent No. 2 and the Petitioner No. 1/husband. It is stated that the Petitioners and the Respondent No. 2 have amicably settled all the disputes and differences between them and arrived at Settlement dated 19.10.2024.

It is stated that the Petitioner No. 1/husband shall pay a sum of Rs.6,40,000/- towards full and final settlement of all the claims in all respect i.e. towards past, present and future maintenance, balance istridhan and alimony of the Respondent No. 2/wife, in three instalments. It is also stated that the Petitioner No. 1/husband shall pay the first instalment of Rs.2,00,000/- to Respondent No. 2/wife at the time of recording of statements of both the parties before the Court under Section 13-B (1) of the

10. It is also stated that on 13.12.2024, the marriage between the Petitioner No. 1/husband and the Respondent No. 2/wife, had been dissolved by mutual consent, as per the Hindu law.

11. In view of the Settlement dated 19.10.2024, the present Petition has been filed.

12. The parties are present before this Court in-person today and have been identified by the respective learned Counsel. The parties have endorsed the amicable Settlement and accepted the terms thereof voluntarily and have undertaken to remain bound by the terms and conditions of the Settlement.

13. The parties have submitted that all the disputes have been amicably settled vide Settlement dated 19.10.2024 and thus, no fruitful purpose will be served in continuing with the FIR.

14. The present Petition has been signed by the Petitioners and is supported by their Affidavits. The parties have reaffirmed the terms of the Settlement dated 19.10.2024 and they submit that the said Settlement has been arrived at between the parties, without any pressure and coercion.

15. The Respondent No. 2 states that she has received all amounts due to her and has no objection if the FIR is quashed.

16. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion and also the fact that the present matter is a family matter, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

17. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the aforesaid FIR in question.

18. Accordingly, FIR No. 0259/2024 under Sections 498A/406/506/509/34 of the IPC registered at P.S. Farsh Bazar and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.
