daughter, Amaya Singh Bohra, who is now about 4 years of age, will reside with the petitioner at E-356, 3rd Floor, Greater Kailash Part II, New Delhi 110048 and shall remain in his care and custody.

- ii. Petitioner affirms that he shall take full care of the child and proposes to continue her education in Tagore International School where she already has admission and will start her educational journey in kindergarten.
- iii. Respondent, who will find herself a temporary residence in Delhi (currently she was with her mother in Varanasi), will have full visitation rights of the minor daughter which will be as under:
 - on every Wednesday, at the residence of petitioner, where she will be allowed to interact independently with the child from 1:30 pm to 6:30 pm.
 - on every Friday, respondent will take the child after her school around 1:30 pm (after the child has taken her lunch) and will restore the child to petitioner the next day, Saturday by 5:30 pm.
- iv. Respondent shall maintain communication with the petitioner and/or his family member for the purposes of coordinating the visitation.
- v. At no stage will the child will be taken out of jurisdiction of Delhi by the respondent.

6. This interim arrangement has been agreed to in furtherance of the phrase 'mutual convenience' agreed upon in the divorce proceedings, as stated in para 4 of the statement recorded and forming part of the divorce decree dated 8th April 2024.

This is a digitally signed order.

The authenticity of the order can be re-verified from Delhi High Court Order Portal by scanning the QR code shown above.

The Order is downloaded from the e-Court system on 08/04/2024 at 15:45:52

7. It is reiterated that this agreed interim arrangement has been arrived only to give some meaning and specificity to the phrase 'mutual convenience' since it had not been fleshed out in the divorce proceedings.
8. Needless to state that this Court has not assessed or opined on the rights and contentions of the parties, which remain open to be exercised in accordance with law.
9. This petition stands disposed of with these directions.
10. Order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
