CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMIT MAHAJAN

ORDER

25.07.2025

1. The present leave to appeal is filed under Section 378 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 ('CrPC') against the judgement dated 08.03.2022, passed by the learned Metropolitan Magistrate ('MM'), South-East district, Saket Courts, Delhi, whereby Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 were acquitted of the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 ('NI Act') in Ct Case 11239/2018.

2. At the outset, the learned counsel for the petitioner states that in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Celestium Financial v. A. Gnanasekaran : 2025 SCC OnLine SC 1320, the petitioner being a victim is entitled to file an appeal against the judgment of acquittal and is not required to seek leave to appeal. He submits that the present petition be transferred to the learned Court of Sessions to be treated as an appeal.

3. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the recent decision in Celestium Financial v. A. Chandrasekaran (supra) has opined that a complainant who prefers a complaint under Section 138 of the NI Act is an aggrieved party who suffers economic loss due to dishonour of cheque, and such a complainant qualifies as a victim within the meaning of Section 2(wa) of the CrPC. Consequently, it was held that such a complainant is entitled to the benefit of the proviso of Section 372 of the CrPC, enabling them to maintain an appeal against an order of acquittal without seeking leave to appeal under Section 378(4) of the CrPC.

4. The petitioner was the complainant in the complaint preferred under Section 138 of the NI Act, thus is entitled to maintain an appeal under Section 372 of the CrPC against the judgment of acquittal.

5. In terms of proviso to Section 372, an appeal by a victim against the judgment of acquittal passed by the learned MM will have to be heard by the learned Court of Sessions. If the petition is allowed to continue before this Court, the parties will stand to lose a forum of challenge.

6. In view of the above, the present matter is disposed of with direction that the present petition be treated as an appeal under proviso to Section 372 of the CrPC and numbered accordingly.

7. The Registry is directed to transfer entire record of the case, including the requisitioned copy of the Trial Court Record, to the concerned appellate Court of Sessions.

8. The order be communicated to the learned Principal District & Sessions Judge for compliance and listing before the concerned Appellate Court on 27.08.2025.

9. The parties are directed to appear before the learned Appellate Court on 27.08.2025.

10. Considering that the matter has been pending before this

Court since the year 2022 to learned Sessions Court is requested to dispose of the matter expeditiously.
