4. Learned counsel for the respondent submits that he is making such statement on the basis of specific instructions which he has received from the concerned department.
5. Such statement is taken on record.
6. Learned counsel for petitioner, therefore, at the moment does not press the present contempt.
7. In view of the above, the petition stands disposed of as not pressed.
8. However in case, the amount is not remitted within a period of six weeks from today, the petitioner would be at liberty to revive the present contempt petition by moving appropriate application.
9. A copy of this order be given dasti to both the sides.
10. Respondent would also be at liberty to send copy of this order to the concerned finance department so that there is no further delay with respect to the payment of interest component.
