respect to the transfer of the 50% share in favour of the defendant.

6. Learned Counsel for the plaintiff confirms the submissions of the defendant and states that in view of the aforesaid settlement agreement, the suit be decreed in terms of the settlement agreement.

7. This Court has perused the terms of the settlement agreement and is satisfied that the parties have arrived at a lawful settlement which satisfies the requirement of Order XXIII Rule 3 CPC. Having regard to the aforesaid, there does not appear to be any impediment in decreeing the underlying suit in terms of the aforesaid Settlement Agreement.

8. In view of the statements of the parties recorded by the Ld. Joint Registrar and their counsels recorded above, the terms of settlement are accepted and shall deemed to form part of this order.

9. Consequently, the suit is decreed in terms of the settlement agreement dated 03.03.2025 executed between the parties, which is marked as Ex. C-1. The Registry is directed to draw up the decree accordingly. The settlement agreement shall form part of the decree.

10. Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

11. It is directed that the parties herein shall remain bound by the terms of the settlement agreement and will not act in any manner, which derogates from the obligations and undertaking recorded herein.

12. All pending applications shall stand disposed of.

13. Future dates stand cancelled.
