respondent/CBSE to afford a personal hearing to the petitioner school.

4. Mr. M.A. Niyazi, the learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent/CBSE, on instructions, submits that, without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the respondent/CBSE, a personal hearing will be afforded to the petitioner school and a reasoned order will be passed within one week.

5. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent/CBSE to afford a personal hearing to the present petitioner and pass a reasoned order without being influenced by the previous orders.

6. It is further clarified that in case the respondent/CBSE requires any further documents, it is at liberty to ask for the same from the petitioner school.

7. Likewise, the petitioner school is also at liberty to furnish fresh documents to the respondent/CBSE.

8. Needless to say that the petitioner school shall not enroll any fresh students for Class XI and Class XII.
