30.05.2025

CRL.M.A. 11704/2025 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

W.P.(CRL) 1238/2025

3. By way of present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of FIR bearing no. 192/2023, registered at Police Station Keshav Puram, Delhi for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC') and its consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

4. Issue notice. Mr. Rahul Tyagi, the learned ASC accepts notice on behalf of State.
5. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 are present before this Court. They have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO), from Police Station Keshav Puram, Delhi.
6. Brief facts of the case are that the marriage between the petitioner no. 1 and the respondent no. 2 had been solemnized at Delhi on 09.09.2019, in accordance with Hindu rites and ceremonies. It is stated that no child was born out of the said wedlock. It is stated that due to various differences, disputes and temperamental issues, both the parties had started residing separately since 09.03.2021. Thereafter, respondent no. 2 had lodged the present FIR against the petitioners. It is stated that with the intervention of family and friends, the parties have now amicably settled their dispute vide Settlement Deed dated 05.11.2024. Thereafter, both the parties had obtained decree of divorce by way of mutual consent from the concerned Court.
7. It is stated that both the parties have amicably settled their disputes and their statements to the said effect have been recorded by the learned Joint Registrar (Judicial) on 21.04.2025.
8. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection, if the present FIR is quashed.
9. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

10. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 192/2023, registered at Police Station Keshav Puram, Delhi for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

11. In view of the above, the present petition along with pending applications, if any, stands disposed of.

12. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
