ORDER

% 25.04.2025

1. After some arguments, the learned counsel appearing for the appellants seeks to withdraw the present appeal by reserving all rights to take any objection which would be available in law in the proceedings that may be instituted for enforcement of the impugned award.
2. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed as withdrawn.
3. It is clarified that this will not preclude the appellants from raising such contentions as advised to resist the enforcement of the award as may otherwise be available in law.
4. Pending applications are also disposed of.
