ORDER

% 03.04.2025

I.A. 8616/2025 (under Order XXIII Rule 3 read with Section 151 CPC, 1908)

1. Heard learned senior counsel for the plaintiff and learned counsel for the defendants on the joint application filed by the parties.
2. The defendant, along with the authorized representative of the plaintiff, is present in the Court.
3. For the reasons stated in the application, and with the consent of the parties, the Court finds that the amicable settlement has been arrived at between the parties without any fear or coercion.
4. Order XXIII, Rule 3 authorizes the Court to pass a decree on a compromise wherein the parties to the dispute have made an arrangement to settle the dispute. It has been comprehensively stated in the provision that the settlement arrived at should meet the essentials laid down therein, namely, (i) the compromise is lawful (ii) it is reduced in writing (iii) it is duly signed by the parties arriving at the compromise.

5. The Court is satisfied that the settlement has been arrived at between the parties following due procedure and meeting the essentials specified in Order XXIII, Rule 3. Therefore, the parties shall be bound by the same.

6. In view of the prayer made in the instant application, the civil suit stands decreed in terms of the prayer Clause A and B of the CS(OS) 258/2020.

7. The Registry is directed to draw-up a decree sheet.

8. The civil suit along with the pending applications stands disposed of.

9. The date already fixed, stands cancelled.
