ORDER

07.03.2025

1. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the record, it would be expedient to reproduce the relevant operative portion of the order dated 20.04.2023 passed by this Court in W.P. (C) 451/2022 and connected matters, which is reproduced as under:-

“Those students who have appeared in NEET Examination and were admitted in Homeopathy course by virtue of interim order passed by this Court should be permitted to continue with their course even if they have not obtained the minimum qualifying marks in NEET Examination and the Universities to which the institutions running Homeopathy courses are affiliated to are directed to permit the students to sit in the examination and complete their course. Those students who have not taken the NEET Examination but were permitted to secure admission pursuant to the interim order of this Court are granted liberty to approach the Apex Court by filing appropriate applications in the matters pending before the Apex Court dealing with this issue. The interim order dated 25.02.2022 is extended till 15.08.2023 to enable the students to approach the Apex Court for getting an order in their favour.”

2. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the present petition is concerned with those students who appeared in the NEET Examination and were admitted in the Homeopathy course by virtue of the interim order passed by this Court. It is acknowledged that the said category of students have since joined the Homeopathy course and on completion of their semesters, have also been allowed to appear in the Examination.

3. It is but apparent that since the aforesaid category of students are pursuing their studies, they would in all probability be allowed to pursue the said courses till its final semester subject to such directions as may be passed by the Supreme Court.

4. In view of the aforesaid submissions, the present petition is disposed of as satisfied without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties herein.

DHARMESH SHARMA, J.
