ORDER

% 17.12.2025

1. The instant petition under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter "BNSS") [earlier Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter "CrPC")] has been filed by the petitioners praying for quashing of FIR No. 256/2014 registered at Police Station Sarai Rohilla for the offences punishable under Sections 323/341/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter "IPC").
2. The brief facts of the case are that on 17.03.2014 at about 9:30 PM, the complainant heard a disturbance in the street and found his neighbour being abused by the petitioners over a loudspeaker being played at his house, with petitioners armed with sticks and rods; when the complainant intervened, he was restrained and assaulted, sustaining head injuries. Pursuant thereto, the present FIR was registered.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that chargesheet has already been filed against the petitioners. It is submitted that the petitioners and respondent no. 2 have settled their disputes amicably and are now moving forward towards a peaceful and harmonious future.

4. Compromise deed dated 22.11.2024 is on record and has been annexed as “Annexure-3”. Qua this deed, the respondent no. 2 has agreed to withdraw the case arising out of FIR No. 256/2014 registered at Police Station Sarai Rohilla against the petitioners.

5. It is prayed by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the parties that the instant FIR may be quashed on the basis of the compromise.

6. Learned APP for the State, who appears on advance notice, accepts notice and submits that there is no opposition to the prayer made by the petitioners seeking quashing of the FIR in question in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. The petitioners are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer, Police Station Sarai Rohilla. Respondent no. 2 is also present in the Court and has been identified by his counsel and the Investigating Officer.

9. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 2 has categorically stated that he has entered into compromise on his own free will and without any pressure. It is also stated by him that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties.

10. Keeping in view the fact that the matter stands settled between the petitioners and respondent no. 2 amicably without any pressure, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the matter pending.

11. In view of the fact that the parties are neighbours and they have arrived at a settlement, no useful purpose will be served in continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them.

12. It is, thus, in the interest of justice to quash the afore-mentioned FIR and the proceedings emanating therefrom.

13. Hence, in light of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab (2012) 10 SCC 303, FIR No.256/2014 registered at Police Station Sarai Rohilla for the offences punishable under Sections 323/341/506/34 of the IPC, and consequent proceedings emanating therefrom, are quashed qua the present petitioners.

14. The petition alongwith pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
