1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 3119/2025

3. By way of the present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of the FIR bearing No. 0320/2018, registered at Police Station Palam Village, Delhi, for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
4. Issue notice. Mr. Naresh Kumar Chahar, the learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.

5. All the petitioners are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer (IO) concerned, Police Station Palam Village, Delhi.

6. Brief facts of the case are that the marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 had been solemnized at Tarantaran, Punjab on 28.02.2016, in accordance with Hindu rites and ceremonies. It is stated that no child was born out of the said wedlock. It is further stated that on account of temperamental differences, disputes and issues had arisen between the parties due to which they have been residing separately since 16.05.2020. Upon the complaint being filed by respondent no. 2, the present FIR came to be registered against the petitioners. It is stated that with the intervention of family and friends, the parties have now amicably settled their disputes vide Settlement Deed dated 13.10.2024 and had obtained a decree of divorce by way of mutual consent before the concerned Court.

7. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 2 who has been identified by the IO concerned, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. Therefore, she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed. The statement of the parties to the said effect had been recorded by the learned Joint Registrar (Judicial) on 05.05.2025.

8. In view of the above, that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, and without any coercion, and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

9. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 0320/2018, registered at Police Station Palam Village, Delhi, for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.
10. In view of above, the present petition stands disposed of.
11. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
